It Is What You Want It To Be

When you put an orchestra record on the New Edison Diamond Amberola, the Amberola becomes an orchestra.

When you put on a vocal record, it becomes a singer.

When you put on a violin, piano, harp or cornet record, it becomes the instrument itself.

So real, so "life-like" is the reproduction that it is hard to believe that the artist is not actually in the room.

And no needles are required to play

The NEW EDISON DIAMOND AMBEROLA

The stylus (reproducer point) of the Amberola is a genuine diamond that never wears out. Neither do you have to worry about injuring expensive records, because are almost unwearable and nearly unbreakable; and there are more than 3,000 titles to choose from.

AMBEROL RECORDS

Our Liberal Free Trial Offer

means that you can have any model Amberola and a dozen Records delivered to your home, to enjoy for a week without paying a cent or being under any obligation to purchase. May we send you one today?

Private Sonnier Dies of Influenza

The priest wrote for him when he was just dying, saying he loved me and he loved the children," said Mrs. Alfred Sonnier between sobs over the telephone.

She was giving an account of the death of her hero-husband from Spanish influenza on his way back overseas after a short leave. He was a French reservist and had been in the trenches for forty-eight months, leaving here three days after war broke out to join up with his regiment. The military cross was conferred on him for being the first to volunteer to carry wounded from No Man's Land under a heavy gun fire about a year ago on the sector where he was engaged.

He was never wounded, and at the close of almost four years in the trenches he obtained a brief leave, arriving in Winnipeg a week ago last Sunday. Last Sunday his leave was up, and in the best of health he bade what he believed would be only a brief farewell to his wife and two daughters.

On Tuesday he lay dying in Montreal, and the priest at his bedside was writing his last message of love and comfort to his family. This morning Mrs. Sonnier had an official message from the war office saying that he had died on Tuesday.

"They have buried him without my knowing it," she sobbed. "I might have gone to the funeral if they had let me know sooner. I might have had the body brought here. It is so awful that he is buried without my knowing."

Mrs. Sonnier and the two girls, Germaine, aged 14, and Madeleine, aged 12, came to Winnipeg two years ago from Calgary, where the family had made its home for six years, the husband and father being employed in the mines. The family came originally from France, and there are no relatives here to whom the widow in her tragedy can turn.

Pro Belgica:

"Pro Belgica," a periodical published for the Belgian propaganda, has just issued a remarkable special number. On the cover, framed with the now well known Belgian national colors, is represented a genealogical tree of the Royal family, on the foot of which is the kingdom's coat of arms. Nineteen portraits figure on that tree.

Statesmen, professors, writers have contributed to this number, so that it may contain interesting articles. French ones are the following: The Belgian Mission to America, by H. Carton de Wiart; Reconstruction in Belgium, by Mr.
des Omhiaux; Epics of Yser, by Rev. Father de Mangleere, a striking letter addressed to the Governor of Belgium, reproduced
from "Le Libre Belgique"; Belgian Army's share in The War; Professional training for maimed soldiers, by Senator Thiebaut, etc.

Among the English articles let us mention: A fine letter from Mr.
Herbert Hoover; Fighting Starvation in Belgium, by Professor Vernon Kellogg; Belgian War Cartoons, by Mr. R. Arrowsmith; Belgium's Gratitude Towards the United States, by Mr. des Omhiaux;
Reply to the German White Book;
The Belgian Dynasty, etc.

This number contains also an illustrated notice on Queen Elizabeth, and the entire list of subscribers to Queen Elizabeth's purse.

Numerous illustrations increase the interest of this publication.
Apart from photographs of the front and of the Belgian relief work, there are fine portraits of the Royal family, of the Belgian premier, Mr. Cooreman; of the minister of justice, Mr. Carton de Wiart;
of Cardinal Mercier, of Mr. Herbert Hoover, together with ministers taken at St. Adresse.

This number may be obtained on application to 32 Sussex Avenue,
Montreal.

A Cure For Pneumonia

Six onions, according to size.
Chop fine, put in a large spider over a hot fire. Then add about the same quantity of rye meal and vinegar enough to make it a thick paste. In the meantime stir it thoroughly five or ten minutes,
then put in a cotton bag large enough to cover the lungs, and apply it to the chest as hot as the patient can bear. When it gets cool apply another, and thus continuing by heating the poultices. In a few hours the patient will be out of danger. Usually three or four applications will be sufficient. Continue always until the perspiration starts freely from the chest. Be very careful not to expose patient between applications. This simple remedy has never failed in this fatal malady, and was formulated
by one of the best New England physicians.

One End of The War
Is Already Celebrated

One end of the war was celebrated by a number of local patriots on Thursday night. Following a number of patriotic addresses and songs, a grand procession was led down Victoria Street by the city band. Several disciples of John Dewar took part. In addition to the regular instruments, a coal bucket, a German helmet, a cellar door, 6 empty castor oil and gin bottles and a piece of rusty stove pipe lent joy to the midnight
air. One guy, a Swede, was severely censured for singing "How Dry I Am" while the offering was being taken.

The death of Miss Blanche Darrach, sister of Mr. Neil Darrach, of Calgary, and Mrs. J. J. Murray, of Frank, occurred at Calgary on Monday, following a rather brief illness of influenza and pneumonia.
Miss Darrach was twenty-five years of age. But a few weeks ago she returned to Calgary from a visit to her sister at Frank. The remains are being forwarded to Charlottetown, P.E.I., for interment in the family plot.

As a matter of business, what do you think of the plan?

You are a farmer.
Canada is a farming country.
Canada grows more food than the people of Canada need.

To prosper she must sell that surplus food.

Great Britain is our best customer
for grain, pork, beef, cheese and other farm products.

Every practical man must see how important it is to hold the British trade.
Canada wants not only the profit on this trade, she wishes to create a goodwill in Britain towards Canadian products and thus assure our export business for the future.

At the moment Great Britain asks for credit, asks Canada to sell her the products of the farm, "on time." To hold her trade, it is necessary to give this credit.

This takes capital—immense capital.
For Britain's purchases from Canada are huge, and these purchases must be paid for in cash.

In these times, it is not easy even for a nation as wealthy as Canada to procure money. Certainly, no other country can lend us money. The only way now open for Canada to secure money is to borrow from the people of Canada.

This is the reason for selling Victory
Bonds.

Can anyone deny the sound business sense of this plan of protecting our valuable market?

From the standpoint of the man who lends, what better security could he get for his money? Where else could he get a five and a half per cent.
return on such security? Where would he find an investment to pay interest
so regularly and with so little trouble to the lender? Certainly Canadians have an opportunity to benefit very directly from this borrowing plan.

And the money Canada borrows is spent entirely in Canada—a very large part of it for the very crops the farmer has to sell.

Therefore, if the Victory Loan is a success, business in Canada must be good, the nation must prosper and so be able to carry on a vigorous war effort in France and Flanders.

As a practical man you must approve of the Victory Loan plan.

Then help it along. Put your own money into Victory Bonds; urge your friends to buy; work hard among your loyal neighbors to make the Victory Loan 1918 an overwhelming success.

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY AID
VICTORY LOAN

As an instance of how science and industry have co-operated in helping to win the war, it is interesting to note that Sir Thomas White, K.C.M.G., Minister of Finance, has made a special "His Master's Voice" Record for the purpose of actually informing the Canadian Public in his own voice concerning the need of the second Victory Loan.
Science has thus made it possible for the voice of the Finance Minister to be heard in thousands of places in every part of the Country at the same time.
The illustration shows Sir Thomas "caught in the act" as he made his special recording at the laboratories of the Berliner Gramophone Company, Limited, Montreal.

Buy Your Victory Bonds

If Germany Accepts

Before this is in type Germany may have accepted the Allies' terms of armistice.

But, that would not mean that the Victory Loan would not be needed.

Canada will still need the Victory Loan when fighting ceases, just as she has needed the money to carry on the war.

After fighting ceases it will cost hundreds of millions of dollars to maintain Canada's soldiers until they can be demobilized. Canada may have to keep her quota of men in occupied enemy territory.

Canada will have to transport her army home.

For some time to come Canada must continue to finance the supply of foodstuffs for Britain and her Allies on credit.

War or no war, Canada must continue to finance her ship-building program to replace lost tonnage and to establish and maintain her proper place in the sea-carrying commerce of the world.

All this will have to be financed through the Victory Loan, 1918.

Whether or not Germany accepts the Allies' terms, the Victory Loan, 1918, must be subscribed and over-subscribed.

Nothing less than this will enable Canada to complete her war effort and to maintain her agricultural and industrial prosperity.

Remember, this may be your last chance to buy Canadian government bonds bearing five and one-half per cent interest.

NOTICE

Military Service Act, 1917.

EMPLOYMENT OF MEN IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

The following Regulations, recently approved by the Governor General in Council, impose strict obligations upon every employer TO ASSURE HIMSELF THAT EACH OF HIS EMPLOYEES OF MILITARY AGE AND DESCRIPTION IS IN POSSESSION OF DOCUMENTS PROVING THAT HE IS NOT IN ANY WAY IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

An employer who is charged with having a defaulter in his employ must be able to prove THAT THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE EMPLOYEE IN QUESTION WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION at the time when the employee was taken into his employment, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction that the man was not in default under the Military Service Act. It should be clearly understood that the Canadian Registration Certificates given on June 22, 1918, at the time of general registration, in no way define the status of a man under the Military Service Act.

REGULATIONS.

"106. Every person who employs or retains in his service any man who has deserted or is absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service, imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations, or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars, and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he made due inquiry and that THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE MAN SO EMPLOYED OR RETAINED IN HIS SERVICE WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction by such inquiry and papers that the man was not a deserter or absent from the force without leave, or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."

"106a. Every person who HARBOURS OR CONCEALS OR IN ANY WAY ASSISTS ANY MAN WHO IS A DESERTER OR ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE FROM THE CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations, or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable upon summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he was not aware and had no reasonable ground to suspect that the man so harboured, concealed, or assisted was a deserter or absent from the forces without leave or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."

Are You a Shareholder in Your Country?

WHEN you subscribe for Victory Bonds, Canada offers you shares in Canada. These are Canada's bonds, with a fixed period to run, and repayable in full at maturity, just as a Government bill is repayable on demand.

But, unlike the Government bill, Victory Bonds pay you interest at 5% all the time you hold them.

This space made available for the use of Victory Loan by courtesy of Union Bank of Canada.

There are now about 270,000 women working on farms in Great Britain.

The time is rapidly approaching when the ratepayers will hear all-ermonic speeches similar to this: "I have given a great deal of my time to my particular department and saved the town thousands of dollars, and I have received in return but abuse. However, if the people wish to have me be a candidate for next year, I will devote my great ability to the furtherance of the town's interests."

Rev. J. Austin Huntley, of First Baptist church, Calgary, and Rev. S. W. Fallis, of Central Methodist church, Calgary, have tendered their resignations, the former likely to accept a call to Troy, N. Y., and the latter to take up the position of steward of the book room at Toronto.

It is reported that Steve Dorezo, formerly of Blairmore, died of influenza at Drumheller last week. He was about twenty-five years of age and single.

Local and General

Several new cases of flu have developed during the week, but none are considered serious.

The Aschacher family are down with the flu, and are being cared for by Dr. Bayfield and Miss E. M. Fulton.

The flu is to blame for the "chickens" of Blairmore raising the gauze from their chests to their noses.

Miss McKay has sufficiently recovered from the flu to be able to return home to Frank from the Coleman isolation hospital.

Miss I. Murdoch, of Frank, goes to Pincher Creek tonight, where she will remain with her mother until the reopening of school.

The death of John David Buchanan, father of Lieutenant Arthur Buchanan, of the 192nd battalion, and of Mrs. Fred W. Lindsay, occurred at Pincher Creek on Tuesday morning, in his sixty-fifth year.

A local Chinaman, who evidently has been led to believe that the purpose of the mask was to keep his mouth shut, remarked: "Me no see me wear this for. Me no talk English—me Chinese!"

Prompt action was taken by the Red Cross Central Depot at Calgary in connection with an appeal sent out by the local branch of the Red Cross Society this week, and as a result the local committee has on hand a quantity of supplies for emergencies that may arise from the influenza epidemic, showing that those connected with the Red Cross are never lacking in their attention to home service as well as to the requirements of the boys overseas. Following is a list of supplies received:

- 10 dozen Towels
- 10 dozen Pillow Cases
- 10 dozen Sheets
- 8 dozen Men's Night Shirts
- 2 dozen Children's Night Shirts
- 5 dozen Women's Night Shirts
- 4 dozen large Pneumonia Jackets
- 2 dozen small Pneumonia Jackets
- 1 dozen large Bed Jackets
- 15 dozen Handkerchiefs
- 2 dozen Nurses' Aprons
- 6 only Children's Bed Jackets

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF CANADA

UNITE TO HELP

VICTORY LOAN BY WAR MEMORIAL

ONE MILLION SCHOLARS!
ONE MILLION DOLLARS!

A million Sunday School scholars and members of young peoples' associations of the Anglican, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist and Congregational churches are co-operating on a plan which has the three-fold purpose of helping to boost the Victory Loan Over The Top; assisting the churches to extend their mission work; and commemorating the heroism of church members who have fallen at the front.

"Every School at least one bond" is the cry that will help to carry the 1918 Victory Loan to the Sunday schools' million dollar objective. Above is a reproduction of the shield to be presented to each Sunday school subscribing a bond.

EPIDEMIC INFLUENZA

Instructions Regarding Care of Sick Persons

Since Thousands of People are Nursing Influenza Patients in the Province the Following Instructions Will Be of Value.

1. Fresh air is the most essential requisite to the comfort and well being of patients, no matter how ill.
2. Rest in bed for three days after fever has gone, is urged to prevent complications.
3. Pneumonia cases should not be kept in the same room with uncomplicated influenza cases.
4. Nourishing food at regular intervals.
5. Plenty of water or lemonade.
6. General unworried service. (Avoid chattering, nagging or questioning). Anticipate wants of sickest patients; convalescents usually ask for what they want. Keep the patients in isolated room, in separate beds. Keep patients in bed all of the time. (This means patient must not get up to go to the bathroom). Two or three pillows arranged step fashion, the lowest well under the shoulders, will make breathing easier. Keep the arms and shoulders well covered. Ventilate the room freely. At the outset, headache and backache are frequent. Cold cloths (moist, but not dripping) to the head, changed frequently, give some relief.

Avoid anything that might cause the slightest chill.

Care of Mouth. A mouth wash every few hours and cold cream to the lips help to keep the mouth in a normal condition.

If the patient is extremely weak, swab the teeth carefully with moistened cotton applications three times daily.

Cough. Patient should keep mouth covered when coughing. Paper napkins or three thicknesses of toilet paper used only once, are safer and better than rags or handkerchiefs. Keep a small paper bag pinned to bedside, within easy reach of patient's hand, to receive the used napkins. Change bag at least twice daily, or whenever it becomes half full.

The invisible spray from the mouth and nose during coughing and sneezing is as dangerous as visible expectoration. Convalescent patients can be masked; weak patients are annoyed by them.

Food. For the unhappy, feverish patients, liquid diet, hot or cold, as preferred, milk, lemonade, weak tea and coffee, broths. For convalescent and patients not feverish, soft diet, gruels, cooked cereals, milk toast, jellies, soft boiled eggs, etc.

Food may be kept warm in a thermos bottle.

All patients should drink some water every hour when awake.

Precautions. All mouth washes, bath water, exeta, and uneaten liquid food should be thrown into the toilet by the attendant.

All bags, napkins, scraps of uneaten food, mouth swab, etc., should be wrapped in clean newspaper before being carried to the kitchen to be destroyed by burning.

All linen, sheets, masks, towels, etc., should be submerged in a large kettle of cold water in the sick room, or put in a pillow slip, or laundry bag. This can be safely carried to the kitchen stove, and when contents have been boiled five minutes anyone may finish caring for the linen. When attendant cannot stop to wash her own hands, door knobs, faucets, etc., should be protected by scraps of newspaper, which may be destroyed after each using. Attendants must be constantly masked, must wear big all-over aprons in sick room, changing it to a different one always before entering any other part of the house. Attendant must keep facilities for washing her own hands, soap, nail brush and paper towels, in clean place and never touch the patient or patient's utensils without afterward cleansing her own hands thoroughly. Running water is better and safer than a basin of weak disinfectant kept for the hands alone.

Everything used for the patient should be kept separate from the supplies for the rest of the household. This means dishes, bed linen, bath wraps, towels, face cloths, rocking chairs, etc.

Families can help visiting nurses and aids by having hot water, towels and newspapers ready when nurses are expected.

Provincial Health Department.

At a meeting of citizens held in the town hall on Friday night last a relief committee was appointed to make daily rounds of houses in quarantine, ascertaining requirements of the inmates and supplying them. The committee is composed of Messrs. J. E. Gillis, W. J. Bartlett, J. B. Hargner and Rev. W. T. Young. They are being ably assisted by Mrs. O. Lillie, Mrs. Gillis, J. A. McDonald, Chief Carter and others. Contributions of soups, etc., made as prescribed by the physician, are solicited. The committee makes the rounds at least once a day.

The Kaiser has been given 72 hours in which to decide on the acceptance or rejection of the Allies' terms for peace. In the event of no decision within that time, the allied forces will in quick time complete their task of knocking the devil out of Germany.

Lieut. H. A. Jackson has returned to Pincher Creek from overseas.

John McPhail, master mechanic with the West Canadian Collieries, is around again after being laid up for several weeks with erysipelas.

The family of Frank Bombardier are down with influenza. Miss A. Rooft is looking after the family under the direction of Dr. Bayfield.

The death occurred at Calgary on Sunday last of Miss Louise Sunstrum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sunstrum, of Hutton, Alta., formerly of Blairmore, at the age of 29 years. Miss Sunstrum was at one time a member of the staff of the local telephone exchange.

The death of Mrs. Holloppa occurred at her home on Cement St., following a very brief illness. She leaves a husband and six children to mourn their loss. The Holloppa family came to Blairmore to reside but a few months ago. Interment took place in the Protestant cemetery this afternoon, Rev. W. T. Young officiating.

The flu has killed more Canadians than the European war.

Miss Jewel MacDonald, of Raymond, is visiting with Miss Pinkney for a few days.

Councillor Mike Ross recovered from an attack of what he claims was Spanish Flu with variations. He says his temperature registered 144° in the shade. In the opinion of many, that's about the temperature he should anticipate.

The remains of the late Fred H. Patton were taken to Cranbrook by Sunday morning's train, where interment took place. Mrs. Patton and children, and other relatives returned to The Pass by the evening train.

Hon. T. W. Crothers, minister of labor, has resigned. Hon. Gladstone Robertson, who has represented labor in the cabinet for some time past and who is chairman of the registration board, has been appointed successor to Mr. Crothers.
